Young domestic turkeys readily fly short distances, perch and roost. These behaviours become less frequent as the birds mature, but adults will readily climb on objects such as bales of straw. NEW! ARTISAN GOLD TURKEYS: The Artisan Gold is a rare breed that is smaller in size and slow growing. It has black feathers, unique colouring in the face and feet, long black legs, and a pronounced beak. The Bailey family are the regions leading producer of locally reared turkeys. We've been rearing traditional turkeys for over 50 years and passionately believe that breed, rearing and welfare are all key to a great tasting bird. There are some new residents at the Tower of London. They're only about 11 inches tall, are very noisy, and eat rats for breakfast, lunch, and dinner., 10 Fat Turkeys.
