"Classic salmon flies are considered the 'high art' of fly tying. Often combining a mix of exotic furs, yarns, flosses, feathers, and other materials in a formal design intended to catch the eye of the angler as much or more than the eye of the fish, some classic salmon flies contain up to thirty or more materials in one fly. Northwest Classic Salmon fly tying expert Dave McNeese puts it well: "One only has to open this lovely book to see it's value. The lengthy text on the 50 species of birds used in this book to produce gorgeous Salmon flies is crucial to developing an understanding of their function and use., Feather Craft The Amazing Birds And Feathers Used In Classic Salmon Flies.
