The "Grief Therapy" Elf Self help book is good for all ages. I have recently been dealing with a death in my family and we bought two separate copies of this book to have handy. The death of a loved one has a powerful and significant impact on a person's life. But the surrounding world often expects survivors to move quickly beyond their loss, to "just snap out of it." Considering the fact that the title is "Elf-Help" I was surprised about the Christian bent. Has a few good ideas, is probably a good read soon after a loss.
