

Download Letters From Cairo Arab American Writing

The McMahon–Hussein Correspondence was a series of letters exchanged during World War I in which the British government agreed to recognize Arab independence after the war in exchange for the Sharif of Mecca launching the Arab Revolt against the Ottoman Empire. The American University in Cairo admits undergraduate and graduate degree-seeking applicants for the fall and spring semesters. The university welcomes the applications of Arabic Language Institute, Study Abroad and non-degree applicants for the summer session, as well as the fall, spring and winter semesters. The Muslim Brotherhood - also called Muslim Brethren or The Society of the Muslim Brothers (Arabic: ????? ??????? ??????? Jamiat al-Ikhwan al-muslimun) - is an Islamic organization with a political approach to Islam. Raghida Dergham (born 1953) is a Lebanese-American journalist based in New York. She is the Founder and Executive Chairman of Beirut Institute and Columnist for The National., Letters From Cairo Arab American Writing.

Other Files :