Creating a Powerful Personal Presence to Influence and Engage Jan 24, 2019. The perception of “personal presence” dictates decisions and actions every day. Have you ever been told (or felt) you’re too stiff, timid, aggressive, nervous, bossy, emotional, have a boring voice, or lack confidence? If you want to be considered leadership material, it’s essential to hone your verbal and nonverbal messages. Our experienced facilitators bring to life the techniques and exercises used in our presence and leadership programs—pushing and challenging participants to take new perspectives, raise awareness of themselves, and develop new approaches to real-world business situations.
