

Download The Baptist Confession Of Faith 1689 Pocket Puritans

This is the Second London Baptist Confession of Faith. Some sources report it was available privately in 1677. It is based on the Westminster Confession of Faith (1646) and the Savoy Declaration. Banner of Truth also offers the Westminster Confession in its Pocket Puritan Series. Every Baptist who believes in the doctrines of grace, as well as those who want to learn what Strict and Particular Baptists believed then and now would find this edition useful in their studies. This is the 1689 Second London Confession of Faith that was the standard confession for Baptist churches in the British Empire for the next 250 years. It was a Calvinistic confession that differed with the other Calvinistic confessions over believers' baptism and the Lord's Supper. This was the Confession that the great Charles Spurgeon held to.
