In 1998 the Luverne Chamber of Commerce approached Jim and Judy Brandenburg with the idea of opening a Brandenburg Gallery in Luverne, MN. The Brandenburgs agreed, but insisted it be a non-profit prairie gallery with all proceeds going to promote Southwest Minnesota and its prairies. April 2, 2019. Time for the last report of the season. It sure was a good season wasn't it. Albeit a fast one though!! The weather really cooperated as did the machines. British Dialect. to plow (a field) so that the soil of a furrow is pushed over onto an unplowed adjacent strip. Lighthouses are plenty here in Munising. During the winter time, many can be visited by snowmobile. Miles and miles of wilderness trails following old logging roads and pathways beckon the snowmobile seeking the beauty and solitude of the great northwoods., The Unplowed Sky.
